LESSON 8	Read Me	Alternatives & More Briefs	My Way
Look at your Lesson 8 Keyboard Map and write these letters until they are memorized: J-　=　SKWR C-　=　KR-　➜ V-　=　SR- sound oo as in hood　=　AO　➜ Word Beginnings: st-　sk-　sp-　sw- Word Endings: -ch as in such　=　-FP -sh as in fish　=　-RB -ling　=　-LG -lings　=　-LGS Suffixes: -ing　=　-PBG -ings　=　-PBGS Words: J-　=　SKWR jam　=　SKWRAPL jail　=　SKWRAEUL jailed　=　SKWRAEUL/D jazz　=　SKWRAZ jello　=　SKWREL/OE job　=　SKWROB jock　=　SKWROBG John　=　SKWRO*PB jab　=　SKWRAB jot　=　SKWROT jagged　=　SKWRAG/D jade　=　SKWRAEUD jaded　=　SKWRAEUD/D jug　=　SKWRUG Jack　=　SKWRA*BG jack　=　SKWRABG gym　=　SKWREUPL Jim　=　SKWR*EUPL	NOTE: The C- is used to resolve conflicts like sell and cell. KR is also used for the "kr" sound as in cry. PRINCIPLE: Visualizing Spelling: The AO is used for the long U sound to resolve conflicts like fool and fuel. AO can also be used for any words with "oo" in the middle like soon and boot. NOTE: Word Endings and Beginnings vs. Suffixes and Prefixes: A Word "Ending" or "Beginning" refers to a letter/finger grouping for a particular sound like the "ch" sound in "inch". A "suffix" or "prefix" is actually globaled in your CAT software to hook onto the following or preceding word. Most CAT software is smart enough to correct spelling when it sees a suffix or prefix; i.e., if you write PAD/PBG, your CAT will translate "padding" not "pading"

TECHNIQUE:
For the -lg ending, place the tip of your R4 finger on the crack between the –L and the -G.
Do not flatten out your finger.

The Come Back Principle:
Always come back for the -ing endings except in briefs

Suffixes: -ing = -PBG; -ings = -PBGS ➔

The Throw-In Principle
In some words some endings can be "thrown in" to the root word, thus creating a brief form.

For the -ing ending throw in the "g":
grading = GRAEUGD;
splitting = SPHREUGT;
swimming = SWEUPLG

BEWARE: The Throw-In Principle can create conflicts. Use it sparingly for now.
